Notice on rescheduling of 32nd NCAR Part-66 AML examination

This is to kindly inform all the candidates that the 32nd NCAR Part-66 AML examination which was scheduled for 15-17 June 2021 but was postponed following the prohibitory orders / lockdown imposed by the Government of Nepal due to the prevailing COVID-19 pandemic is now rescheduled for 15-18 September 2021 in consultation with CAAi (U.K.) and British Council, Lainchaur, Kathmandu.

The examination will be conducted strictly following the Government of Nepal directives / orders. Should there be any updates in future regarding the imposing of prohibitory orders / lockdown which could hamper the conduction of exam, then the candidates will be notified of such changes in prior. The candidates are also advised to visit the FSSD website: www.flightsafety.caanepal.gov.np regularly for updates regarding the examination. Any such updates will be uploaded in the Notice section of the website.

Only those candidates who submitted their examination application forms and made payment before the deadline i.e. 09 May 2021 will be allowed to sit for the examination.

I thank you for your cooperation and understanding on this matter.

Sincerely,

Er. Bidhan Shrestha
